

BUTTERFLIES AND MOTHS SONG

(I'M CHANGING)

LYRICS: BY LITTLE VOLCANOES

Hello everyone out there!
You can't see us and we don't care!
Let us change into new clothes.
We are butterflies and moths.

We have built a changing room.
A chrysalis or a cocoon?
The chrysalis for butterflies,
Stunning beauties in disguise.
The cocoons are left for moths,
Changing into less cool clothes.

Chorus:

*I'm changing! Can you come out!
I'm changing! Please don't shout!
I'm changing! Please come out!
I'm changing! The waiting is tough!
I'm changing! I'm changing! I'm changing!*

Now, we are out! You can see.
We can fly around, we are free.
We can spread our wings and fly up high.
I'm a perfect moth and I'm a butterfly!

*I'm changing. I'm changing! I'm changing.
I'm changing. I'm changing. I'm changing.
I'm changing. I'm changing. I'm changing.
I'm changing. I'm changing.*
